International Student Health Issues

If your student health record is incomplete, you must schedule an online appointment with the Student Health Center at https://healthcenter.richmond.edu/ to comply with the University’s health requirements. Please go to these appointments even if you must miss other activities.

INTERNATIONAL ORIENTATION SESSION DESCRIPTIONS

Friday, January 7

Immigration Issues for F-1 and J-1 visa holders - How to Maintain Your Status in the U.S. & Health Insurance
F-1 and J-1 students will learn about maintaining their student status in the U.S. and regulations and procedures for studying, traveling, and working on and off campus, as well as the policy, benefits, and claims procedures for the international student health insurance plan.

U.S. Laws & Campus Safety
A University police officer will discuss U.S. laws and campus regulations and resources regarding alcohol, drug and tobacco use, weapons possession, driver and pedestrian safety, theft protection, active shooter scenarios, and other potential threats to the campus.

Health & Wellness Services
This session will explain campus services for mental, physical and sexual health, well-being and recreation services and disability services.

How to Have a Successful Intercultural Experience in the U.S.
This session will introduce academic resources for international students and explore intercultural values and differences in social relationships and academic expectations that international students may experience while studying in the U.S.

How to Navigate the Residence Life System
Learn from Resident Assistants (RAs) about the residence life system and their regulations, support and programming for students.

Diversity, Equity & Inclusion at UR
The newly formed Student Center for Equity & Inclusion is designed to support all students, regardless of background or identity, to feel included and ready to fully participate in all of campus life. Learn about ways to feel supported around your particular identity, explore issues of difference, or be a force for inclusion.
Saturday, January 8

Welcome from the College Deans
Meet your College Deans and become equipped with a variety of resources available to help you succeed.

Getting Involved On Campus
Learn from our International Education Fellow and the international OAs about different ways to get involved in campus life as a new student through sports, outdoor excursions, cultural organizations, special interest groups, and other activities.

Dinner and Games with the International Orientation Advisors
