INTERNATIONAL ORIENTATION SESSION DESCRIPTIONS

Friday, January 11

Immigration Issues for F-1 and J-1 visa holders - How to Maintain Your Status in the U.S. & Health Insurance
F-1 and J-1 students will learn about maintaining their student status in the U.S. and regulations and procedures for studying, traveling, and working on and off campus, as well as the policy, benefits, and claims procedures for the international student health insurance plan.

U.S. Laws & Campus Safety
A University police officer will discuss U.S. laws and campus regulations and resources regarding alcohol and drug use, weapons possession, driver and pedestrian safety, theft protection, active shooter scenarios, and other potential threats to the campus.

Health & Wellness Services
Learn about services for mental and physical well-being and sexual misconduct policies and resources.

Student Health Center appointments
Students who need to complete their Health History Record are required to come to the Health Center during this time. If your Health History Record is incomplete, you will have a hold placed on your student account, which will prevent you from registering and moving into your campus residence.

Saturday, January 12

Getting Involved On Campus
Learn about different ways to get involved in campus life as an exchange student through sports, outdoor excursions, cultural organizations, special interest groups, and other activities.

How to Navigate the Residence Life System
Learn from Resident Assistants (RAs) about the residence life system and their regulations, support and programming for students.

Richmond City Excursions
Go on a sightseeing trip led by your orientation advisor to local political, historical and cultural institutions using the GRTC Pulse bus rapid transit.

Inside UR Basketball
Get the inside scoop on Division 1 college basketball and other upcoming Richmond Spiders spring sports. Coaching and athletics department staff will be on hand to explain some of the rules of the game as well as what makes college basketball unique. You will get all of the important information about student seating and claiming tickets. After the presentation, cheer on the UR Spiders in the women’s basketball game against our Richmond rival Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU)!

Sunday, January 13

Honor Council Presentation & Test for Undergraduate Exchange & Visiting Students
Honor Council members will explain the University’s honor system, including expectations and sanctions for honor code violations. All undergraduate exchange students are required to take this exam during international student orientation. LAW and MBA students do NOT need to take the exam or attend the presentation.
