

UR STUDY ABROAD APPLICATION LATE FEE POLICY

There are two phases to the study abroad application process, with requirements due for each:

Applies to: Spring 2019 & Calendar Year 2019 study abroad applications

Pre-Decision phase deadline: 9/23/18*

Your application will be withdrawn if any Pre-Decision requirements are not completed and submitted by this deadline.

Note: Several programs have earlier Pre-Decision Deadlines; click here for exceptions*

Post-Decision phase deadline: 10/15/18

You will be charged a $200 Late Fee and given a final, last-chance deadline by which to complete and submit the Post-Decision requirements or have your application withdrawn. NOTE: If you decide not to pursue study abroad, you must withdraw your application or decline Richmond's approval offer before the Post-Decision deadline to avoid being charged the $200 Late Fee.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

When does the Late Fee Policy “kick in”?

The Late Fee Policy is active as soon as you start an online study abroad application.

Will I be charged the Late Fee if I start an application but then decide not to continue my study abroad application before the Post-Decision deadline?

Simply abandoning your study abroad application is not sufficient grounds for the Late Fee to be waived. Until we are informed otherwise, the OIE will assume that you intend to pursue your application and we will continue to monitor it for completeness and send you reminders. You must withdraw your application (or decline Richmond's approval offer) before the Post-Decision deadline to avoid being charged a late fee.

What about situations that prevent someone from meeting the deadlines?

Extenuating circumstances (family emergencies, medical emergencies, etc) may qualify for an extension and/or fee exemption, but you must submit a request to your study abroad advisor before the deadline explaining why you need this. NOTE: Academic and/or extra-curricular responsibilities or activities (clubs, sports, jobs, etc.) are not acceptable grounds for missing the official deadlines and being exempt from the Late Fee.

What if my recommendation hasn't been submitted by the Pre-Decision deadline?

Your application won't be withdrawn if your recommendation is late. However, your application cannot be reviewed without a recommendation. You are strongly encouraged to request your recommendation EARLY to avoid any delays and also follow up with faculty as needed, as available program spots may fill up.

What if my official UR transcript isn't received by the OIE by the Pre-Decision deadline?

If you submit your “Transcript Release Form” online signature document on or before the Pre-Decision deadline, your application can still be considered as long as the OIE can obtain your official UR transcript from the Registrar within one week after the deadline.

I transferred to Richmond from another university. What if my official transfer school transcript isn't received by the OIE by the Pre-Decision deadline?

Please refer to the notes about Transfer School Transcripts on the next page.

What requirements are due in the Pre-Decision and Post-Decision phases?

Please see the “Requirements by Phase” chart on the next page for a full list.

REQUIREMENTS BY PHASE (Requirements apply to all students except where otherwise noted)

Material Submissions must be submitted by 5:00 PM on the deadline date.

Online Signatures and Questionnaires must be submitted by 11:59 PM on the deadline date.

THESE ARE NOT THE ONLY REQUIREMENTS DUE!

Please complete and submit all requirements on GatewayAbroad by the Pre- and Post-Decision deadlines, unless otherwise stated in the requirement's instructions.

Missing deadlines will put your study abroad opportunity in jeopardy.

If you are approved, there will be additional items to complete for your host institution, including possibly another application or paperwork to submit. You will be provided an online list of what to do next in your program checklist after the decision date.
